IMPORTANT NOTICE

The participants for the 10th FEN Sapporo Live Microneurosurgery Course ("FEN") are obliged to comply with the following rules.

In case you do not observe the rules, your participation may be cancelled at the discretion of the chairman, even in the middle of the FEN without refund. Also, your participation in the future FEN will no longer be accepted:

- Give considerations to the staffs and patients in Sapporo Teishinkai hospital. Please remember that the hospital is a general hospital where daily operations are conducted in other departments.
- Photo shooting and video shooting of slides and monitors (surgical images) are prohibited.
- Sharing any of the images, videos, or personal information presented in this Live Course is strictly prohibited.
- Uploading any information provided in this Live Course to the internet including SNS, is strictly prohibited.
- Private conversations, questions, and discussions with the surgeon and operating room nurses are prohibited.

CAUTIONS; OR Observations

All participants will be required to strictly follow the rules of the OR as outlined below;

- Please remember it is a general hospital where daily operations are conducted in other departments.
- Give consideration to the staff and patients in Sapporo Teishinkai Hospital.
- Do not upload data and pictures to SNS, Facebook or any other social media platforms.
- You can enter the OR only on the planned schedule and designated groups.

Please note that the above measures are as a result of issues occurred from participants who attended the course in recent years. Please be reminded that if just one participant doesn't follow the rules the Chairman reserves the right to cancel the OR observation immediately, no matter what stage in proceedings, without refund. If you are unable to follow the above rules your participation in future courses will not be accepted.

*Since the Japan Neurosurgical Society prohibits live broadcasting of surgical images, it is not possible to provide live streaming via web, etc.; so, the participants will only be able to observe the live images in the main conference room of Sapporo Teishinkai Hospital.

Course Chairman: Rokuya Tanikawa

Photography and videography policy

During the FEN, the course organizer and staff will take photos and videos without permission to use them for the following purposes;

- For internal use (including use within the B. Braun Group) as a record of the course.
- For publication on B. Braun's website, social media accounts, email newsletters, etc.

The participants of the FEN are deemed to fully understand and agree to this policy, but also have the right to object to the processing of your personal data including a portrait right at any time. In such a case, please contact B. Braun Aesculap Japan Co., Ltd., 2-5-1 Atago, Minato-ku, Tokyo 105-6220, Japan or send an e-mail to academy_ne.jp@bbraun.com.
